Yes to prevention of child abuse

Prevention is the responsibility of all of us.

A buse and violence against children exist everywhere. It is important to remind us that our duty of protection consists of not only to take charge of victims, but also to prevent all acts of violence.

To make prevention a global priority, we encourage you to sign this card and to return it to WWSF who will transmit it to the Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General on Violence against Children.

Yes, I wish to participate with this initiative

- I take a stand for a world without abuse and violence against children
- I commit to be an agent for prevention (and report my activities to WWSF, if I so wish)
- I will read and share the WWSF Guide "Prevention is Key" with my family and friends (available at www.woman.ch)
