2019 Campaign - 19 Days of Activism for prevention of Violence Against Children and Youth 1-19 November

Dear Partners and Friends,

We are happy to share with you our annual Impact Report of the 19 Days of Activism campaign for the prevention of violence and abuse against children and youth 1-19 November 2019. It was a great year and 104 coalition member organizations and grassroots groups participated in the campaign. We wish to thank all registered member organizations and their partners who shared with us their programs, activity reports and results during the 19 days campaign, including on the World Day for prevention of violence against children and youth - 19 November and commemorating the 30th anniversary of the Convention on the Rights of the Child - 20 November.

Congratulations to all 2019 partners!

Our special praise goes to:

1) FICE Romania (International Federation of Educational Communities-Section Romania), that mobilized in 2019 285'000 students in 1'023 schools, involving 35'000 teachers, psychologists, policemen, social workers, journalists, physicians and parents. FICE also shared the program "how to create circles of compassion" in some of the schools and communities where abuse and extreme suffering exist, which resulted in over 100 circles of compassion by children and students.

2) The PO Drugie Foundation in Poland mobilized 254 active campaign partners, including 400 institutions (see P. 22-23), and is among the trailblazers for the end of violence and abuse against children and youth in their country.

3) WWSF Prize for innovative prevention activities (US$ 1'000 each). The award recognizes civil society action that spreads the mission of the 19 Days campaign, builds local networks, raises awareness and creates impact.

WWSF is happy to announce the two Prizewinning organizations in 2019:

- VILLAGE OF HOPE COMMUNITY, Kendu Bay Town, Kenya
- THE CHILD PROTECTION NETWORK, Ibadan, Oyo State, Nigeria

The SDG Target # 16.2 is our touchstone when we prepare for activities and speak to the media and government officials, reminding them that their government has signed on to achieve the UN SDG Agenda 2030 in 2015 in general, and the SDG Target 16.2 in particular: "End abuse, exploitation, trafficking, & all forms of violence against & torture of children."

Let's stay committed for the long haul because the world is waking up to the power of civil society action to reach the UN Sustainable Development Goals – Agenda 2030, which we must realize for our children & grandchildren to live in a world free of all forms of violence, with no one left behind.

WWSF is grateful for the financial support received from a Geneva-based organizations, the Commune Plan-les-Ouates and from WWSF members and friends.

We thank all coalition partner organizations, WWSF Board of Directors, sponsors and friends, staff and consultants, interns and volunteers, for their service and compassionate dedication to produce and publish our annual up-dated campaign Kit "19 Days of Activism" for everyone to use and to help transform our world and ourselves. Our special thanks goes to Deborah Marolf and Lubna Allam for their assistance and preparing the report.

1989-2019: 30th Anniversary of the Convention on the Rights of the Child

30 years after its adoption, the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) is the most ratified UN Treaty and has played a central role to improve the lives of children around the world.

Convention on the Rights of the Child

Preamble

The preamble recalls the basic principles of the United Nations and specific provisions of certain relevant human rights treaties and proclamations. It reaffirms the fact that children, because of their vulnerability, need special care and protection, and it places special emphasis on the primary caring and protective responsibility of the family. It also reaffirms the need for legal and other protections for the child before and after birth, the importance of respect for the cultural values of the child's community and the vital role of international cooperation in securing children's rights.

Article 1

Definition of a child. A child is recognized as every human being under 18 years old, unless national laws recognize an earlier age of majority.

Article 2

Non-discrimination. All rights apply to all children without exception. It is the State's (national government's) obligation to protect children from any form of discrimination and to take positive action to promote their rights.

Article 3

Best interests of the child. All actions concerning the child shall take full account of his or her best interests. The State shall provide the child with adequate care when parents, or others charged with parental responsibility, fail to do so.

Article 4

Implementation of rights. The State must do all it can to implement the rights contained in the Convention.

Article 5

Parental guidance and the child's evolving capacities. The State must respect the rights and responsibilities of parents and the extended family to provide guidance for the child that is appropriate to his or her evolving capacities.

Article 6

Life, survival and development. Every child has the inherent right to life, and the State has an obligation to ensure the child's survival and development.

Article 7

Name and nationality. The child has the right to a name at birth. The child also has the right to acquire a nationality and, as far as possible, to know his or her parents and be cared for by them.

Article 8

Preservation of identity. The State has an obligation to protect and, if necessary, re-establish basic aspects of the child's identity. This includes name, nationality and family ties.

Article 9

Separation from parents. The child has a right to live with his or her parents unless this is deemed incompatible with the child's best interests. The child also has the right to maintain contact with both parents if separated from one or both.

Article 10

Family reunification. Children and their parents have the right to leave any country and to enter their own for purposes of reunion or the maintenance of the child-parent relationship.

Article 11

Illicit transfer and non-return. The State has an obligation to prevent and remedy the kidnapping or retention abroad of children by a parent or third party.

Article 12

Respect of the child's views. The child has the right to express his or her opinion freely and to have that opinion taken into account in any matter or procedure affecting the child.

Article 13

Freedom of expression. The child has the right to express his or her views, obtain information and make ideas or information known, regardless of frontiers.

Article 14

Freedom of thought, conscience and religion. The State shall respect the child's right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion, subject to appropriate parental guidance.

Article 15

Freedom of association. Children have a right to meet with others, and to join or form associations.

Article 16

Protection of privacy. Children have the right to protection from interference with their privacy, family, home and correspondence, and to protection from libel or slander.

Article 17

Access to appropriate information. The State shall ensure the accessibility to children of information and material from a diversity of sources, and it shall encourage the mass media to disseminate information that is of social and cultural benefit to the child, and take steps to protect him or her from harmful materials.

Article 18

Parental responsibilities. Parents have joint primary responsibility for raising the child, and the State shall support them in this. The State shall provide parents with appropriate child-raising assistance.

Article 19

Protection from abuse and neglect. The State shall protect the child from all forms of maltreatment by parents or others responsible for the child's care and shall establish appropriate social programs for the prevention of abuse and the treatment of victims.

Article 20

Protection of a child without family. The State is obliged to provide special protection for a child deprived of the family environment and to ensure that appropriate alternative family care or institutional placement is available in such cases. Efforts to meet this obligation shall pay due regard to the child's cultural background.

Article 21

Adoption. In countries where adoption is recognized and/or allowed, it shall be carried out only in the best interests of the child, and then only with the authorization of competent authorities and safeguards for the child.

Article 22

Refugee children. Special protection shall be granted to a refugee child or to a child seeking refugee status. It is the State's obligation to cooperate with competent organizations that provide such protection and assistance.

Article 23

Disabled children. A disabled child has the right to special care, education and training to help him or her enjoy a full and decent life in dignity and achieve the greatest degree of self-reliance and social integration possible.

Article 24

Health and health services. The child has a right to the highest standard of health and medical care attainable. States shall place special emphasis on the reduction of infant and child mortality and on the provision of primary and preventive health care and of public health education. They shall encourage international cooperation in this regard and strive to see that no child is deprived of access to effective health services.

Article 25

Periodic review of placement. A child who is placed by the State for reasons of care, protection or treatment is entitled to have that placement evaluated regularly.

Article 26

Social security. The child has the right to benefit from social security, including social insurance.

Article 27

Standard of living. Every child has the right to a standard of living adequate for his or her physical, mental, spiritual, moral and social development. Parents have the primary responsibility to ensure that the child has an adequate standard of living. The State's duty is to ensure that this responsibility can be, and is, fulfilled. State responsibility can include material assistance to parents and their children.

Article 28

Education. The child has a right to education, and the State's duty is to ensure that primary education is free and compulsory, to encourage different forms of secondary education accessible to every child, to make higher education available to all on the basis of capacity and to ensure that school discipline is consistent with children's rights and dignity. The State shall engage in international cooperation to implement the right to education.

Article 29

Aims of education. Education shall aim to develop the child's personality, talents and mental and physical abilities to the fullest extent. Education shall prepare the child for an active adult life in a free society and shall foster in the child respect for his or her parents, for his or her own cultural identity, language and values, and for the cultural background and values of others.

Article 30

Children of minorities or indigenous populations. Children of minority communities and indigenous populations have the right to enjoy their own culture and to practice their own religion and language.

Article 31

Leisure, recreation and cultural activities. The child has the right to leisure, play and participation in cultural and artistic activities.

Article 32

Child labor. The child has the right to be protected from work that threatens his or her health, education or development. The State shall set minimum ages for employment and shall regulate working conditions.

Article 33

Drug abuse. Children have the right to protection from the use of narcotic and psychotropic drugs, and from being involved in their production or distribution.

Article 33

Drug abuse. Children have the right to protection from the use of narcotic and psychotropic drugs, and from being involved in their production or distribution.

Article 34

Sexual exploitation. The State shall protect children from sexual exploitation and abuse, including prostitution and involvement in pornography.

Article 35

Sale, trafficking and abduction. It is the State's obligation to make every effort to prevent the sale, trafficking and abduction of children.

Article 36

Other forms of exploitation. The child has the right to protection from all forms of exploitation prejudicial to any aspects of the child's welfare not covered in articles 32–35.

Article 37

Torture and deprivation of liberty. No child shall be subjected to torture, cruel treatment or punishment, unlawful arrest or deprivation of liberty. Both capital punishment and life imprisonment without the possibility for release are prohibited for offences committed by persons below age 18. Any child deprived of liberty shall be separated from adults unless it is considered in the child's best interests not to do so. A child who is detained shall have legal and other assistance as well as contact with the family.

Article 38

Armed conflicts. States shall take all feasible measures to ensure that children under 15 years old have no direct part in hostilities. No child below 15 shall be recruited into the armed forces. States shall also ensure the protection and care of children who are affected by armed conflict as described in relevant international law.

Article 39

Rehabilitative care. The State has an obligation to ensure that child victims of armed conflict, torture, maltreatment or exploitation receive appropriate treatment for their recovery and social reintegration.

Article 40

Administration of juvenile justice. A child in conflict with the law has the right to treatment that promotes the child's sense of dignity and worth, takes the child's age into account and aims at his or her defense. Judicial proceedings and institutional placements shall be avoided wherever possible.

Article 41

Respect for higher standards. Wherever standards set in applicable national and international law relevant to the rights of the child are higher than those in this Convention, the higher standards shall always apply.

Articles 42–54

Implementation and entry into force. These articles notably foresee:

- the entry into force of the Convention 30 days after its ratification or accession by 20 States;
- States parties' obligation to make the rights of the Convention widely known to both adults and children;
- the establishment of a Committee on the Rights of the Child to consider the reports that States parties are required to submit two years after they have ratified the Convention and every five years thereafter;
- States parties' obligation to submit said reports to the Committee on measures they have taken to fulfill the Convention and the progress being made in their implementation;
- States parties' obligation to make their reports widely known in their own countries;
- International cooperation in the field covered by the Convention achieved by inviting UNICEF and the specialized agencies of the United Nations – such as the International Labor organization, the World Health organization and United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural organization – along with 'competent' bodies such as non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the United Nations to attend Committee meetings and provide expert advice on areas within the scope of their activities, and by the Committee's referring to them States parties' requests for technical advice and assistance;
- the Committee's right to recommend to the General Assembly that special studies be undertaken on specific issues relating to the rights of the child. The rights of the child articulated by the Convention are further reinforced by its Optional Protocols on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, and on the involvement of children in armed conflict.

Their mission is to mobilize and harness the power of children, youth, women and people at large to approach illiteracy, gender discrimination and drug addiction with an ultimate aim of crime prevention and inclusive socio-economic development.

Themes tackled: Disabilities, Malnutrition, Universal Children's Day, Circles of Compassion.

Summary of the report:

During the 19 Days Campaign, Navjyoti Foundation organized a series of activities oriented toward inculcating nutritional food habits, a balanced diet, personal hygiene and sanitation, and physically as well as mentally healthy living conditions among children. The children spread awareness in their communities by organizing and conducting information sessions on health and well-being.

The introductory session on health for over 116 young children from rural, socio-economically vulnerable communities were sensitized on the importance of healthy living, healthy food habits, and the downsides of malnutrition. This was followed by sessions to familiarize them with deficiency diseases and the importance of nutritious food and a balanced diet. This was done through interactive games, debates and demonstrations. A health camp was organized for the children, where health check-ups were provided to demonstrate to them the need and importance of good health. Also, the children were introduced to yoga, its techniques and benefits to not just physical but also mental health.

A special interactive session on menstrual hygiene was organized for the young girls, where they were oriented on the usage of sanitary napkins and the hygienic benefits. By involving many differently abled and physically challenged children in the campaign, all the participants were able to connect and understand one another, and do away with misguided and misplaced 'taboos' and apathy toward people with biological and physiological disorders. Through this session, the children with special needs felt more comfortable and accepted.

The children learnt about the need for compassion and care towards the disabled. During the celebration of the Children's Day, they pledged to be vigilant and responsible toward themselves and their roles as future guardians of their communities and the planet.

PO Drugie Foundation, Warsaw

Introducing the Foundation:

The PO Drugie Foundation in Poland is a local organization that aims at helping children and youth at risk of social exclusion, violence, and abuse. The organization has been awarded multiple prizes owing to its support for youth and children through diverse rehabilitation centers and educational institutions. Their services include, and are not limited to, psychological help, legal assistance, and self-empowerment.

Summary of the report:

The campaign was carried out during the 19 days of November 2019. Organizational work had started since August - inviting institutions to participate, promotional activities, collecting applications from coalition partners and consulting proposed campaign activities. In total, 254 coordinating partners were recruited to participate in their area (district, county, commune, city, village), joined coalition partners and created interdisciplinary cooperation. It also contributed to closer cooperation between units of social reintegration services in the scope of everyday activities for the benefit of the inhabitants of the area.

Altogether around 400 institutions from all over Poland took part, i.e. primarily organizations and institutions working with children, youth and families: kindergartens and schools, educational institutions, care and upbringing, socialization, resocialization, probation centers, schools, school complexes, guardian teams, youth educational and sociotherapeutic centers, social assistance centers, county family support centers, non-governmental organizations, foster care facilities, private individuals, day support centers, police, city guard, the Ombudsman for Children, cultural institutions, non-governmental organizations and district offices. Some activities were carried out on a larger scale, e.g. offices and City Halls were highlighted in orange, and the unit's employees wore bows symbolizing the campaign for 19 days. Media were involved in the operation - regional TV, radios, and Internet channels.

The campaign received the honorary patronage of the Ministry of Education of Poland.

Activities implemented by the coalition partners: workshops, talks, film screenings, debates, happenings, exhibitions, performances, meetings with interesting people, preparation of posters and publications, competitions, training sessions, conferences. It is estimated that the range of campaign activities reached over a dozen thousand people from all over Poland, thanks to supporting bottom-up initiatives.

As part of the 19 Days campaign, the SECOND Foundation announced a literary competition entitled “World Champions” with the aim to submit a story of a person who overcame violence - it could be a story about someone who left the perpetrator, found strength to say enough, it could also be a story about someone who stopped using violence; depicting real events; showing that one can change his/her life at any stage and become a world champion!

The aim of the competition was to show and raise awareness that violence cannot be accepted and justified that it must be opposed, and even if it seems that the situation in which it occurs has no chance for a positive solution - a solution can always be found.

At regional and local levels, FICE Romania invited their decentralized structures (school inspectorates, general directions for social assistance and child protection, public health departments, county police inspectorates, county drug evaluation and counseling centers, regional centers against human trafficking, etc.) as well as other institutions and NGOs.

Following the conclusion of the protocol, the Ministry of National Education sent the methodological guide for carrying out the 19 Days Campaign, with a registration form, the visual materials helping all the 41 county school inspectorates and the 6 school inspectorates of the sectors of the municipality of Bucharest, information and a request to participate in the campaign to all schools in the country. Both nationally and in the localities participating in the campaign, the purpose and objectives of the campaign were presented through the media (print media, central or local television stations, on social networks - facebook, twitter).

In carrying out the activities, both the information in the presentation kit transmitted by WWSF and its materials (posters, leaflets, etc.) were created throughout the campaign.

All 19 Campaign themes were covered: sexual abuse, bullying, neglect and exploitation of children, physical abuse (corporal punishment), child prostitution and child pornography, trafficking in children, traditional harmful practices, street children, substance abuse and addiction, juvenile justice, special attention being paid to November 2, November 19 (International Day for the Prevention of Child Abuse) and November 20 (International Day of Children's Rights).

Direct and indirect beneficiaries of the campaign:
The direct beneficiaries are students from schools, children's clubs, placement centers, as well as coordinating teachers.

Indirect beneficiaries are schools, parents and local communities, who will have children with greater capacity for social integration, more protected from the destructive phenomenon of abuse/violence of any kind.

The experience gained since 2012, when FICE Romania participated for the first time in the 19 days Campaign of prevention proposed by the WWSFoundation, helped us to improve our capacities to attract new institutions, schools and local communities to join the annual campaign.

Highlights of participation:

More than 285,000 students from over 1000 schools from all the counties of Romania and Bucharest participated in the 2019 campaign (the list of schools participating is published on P. 28-33).

Also, more than 35,000 teachers, psychologists, policemen, social workers, journalists, doctors and parents participated.

Local institutions involved in the campaign included (public social assistance services from over 1000 localities):

County General Directorates of social assistance and child protection, County police inspectorates, County school inspectorates, County prevention centers and drug evaluation), regional (Regional Centers for Combating Trafficking in Persons) and Central (National Authority for the Protection of the Rights of the Child and Adoption, Ministry of National Education, Ministry of Internal Affairs) in the field of child protection and order and security as well as other NGOs involved in the field of child protection (Association of Directors of DGASPC/AD-DGASPC, Association of Communes of Romania/ACoR).

In the participating schools, the children made drawings and posters that they displayed in the halls, on panels made especially for their messages to be seen, read and known by the other children, officials, parents etc.

Highlights of organized events:

- Over 100 workshops, round tables, debates, participation in programs of local, regional and national television stations
- Over 8000 direct activities carried out with and by the children in the kindergartens and participating schools
- Over 700 activities carried out with parents or grandparents and family members of children (in cases where parents are going to work abroad)
- Over 4000 meetings with specialists (policemen, doctors, psychologists, priests, etc.)
- Over 100 compassion circles forum theater sessions and puppet theater (puppets)

At the level of schools registered in the 19 Days Campaign, under the guidance of teachers, people carried out activities such as workshops, poster production, collages on topics related to preventing of abuse, designing letters, thematic essays for children to send to local authorities and politicians, making drawings that highlight children's anti-violence messages, preparing media projects, films and videos with anti-violence messages, holding meetings with specialists - doctors, psychologists, sociologists, policemen, etc.).

Circles of Compassion

On November 2, 2019, more than 100 compassion circles were created, through which children from communities / schools where cases of extreme abuse and suffering of children (including school or family deaths) became visible (known as acts of violence). They built “altars” dedicated to their colleagues, lit candles, placed photographs of the respective children, placed bouquets of flowers, letters, messages of compassion for families, etc.

Ways of monitoring and evaluating the 19 Days Campaign

The campaign team communicated with each enrolled school unit to ensure that all the features of the project were understood and that the deadlines and procedures were respected.

The connection was made by telephone or by e-mail. As part of this campaign (which we hoped we can initiate in as many educational units), we did not intend to carry out assessments based on output or outcome strategies, but rather to highlight children's reactions (both the abused and the potential aggressors - in the case of bullying or liabilities in relation to acts of violence) and training, through cooperation and pro-active attitudes, denouncing acts of violence and supporting those abused or oppressed.

Ways to ensure continuity / sustainability of the campaign

The sustainability and continuity of the campaign derive from the very interest shown constantly, during the previous 7 editions, by the participating school units, students, parents and teachers.

Activities: The main means of publicizing / promoting the campaign are the FICE Romania web site, the ISJ sites, the magazine Tribuna Învățămintului, the newspapers and magazines in the areas/counties in which the participating schools / communities are located and in the Global Impact Reports published by WWSF on their website (www.woman.ch).

At the end of the Campaign

FICE Romania organized at the Palace of the Parliament in Bucharest a National Conference “UN Convention on the Rights of the Child - a Magna Carta of Human Dignity”, under the high patronage of the Senate of Romania, the Commission for European Affairs.

The event, of high scientific standing, was organized in partnership with the National Authority for the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, Children and Adoptions (ANDPDCA), the Ministry of National Education, the Association of Communes of Romania (AcoR), the National Anti-Drug Agency (ANA), the Association of the Directors of the General Directorates for Social Work and Child Protection (AD-DGASPC), and the International Anti-Drug Alliance (AIN).

30 years after the enactment of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, it was noted that there are still many areas where constant efforts are needed to improve child protection mechanisms, including in Romania, especially in the institutional field and services aimed at preventing child abuse, violence in all social environments: family, school, community.

The scientific event was addressed to professionals in the field of child protection, education, health, justice, religious groups, representatives of local authorities, etc., meeting the need of improving public policies, action practices on child and family protection.

Summary of the report:

During the 19 Days Campaign 300 pupils and children, and 40 professors participated in activities prepared by the school that included practical activities, debates, exhibitions, presentations by specialists (doctors, psychologists, etc.).

The activity "Circles of Compassion" consisted of explaining the importance of combating violence and child abuse.

The activity "Our life depends on our health" took place in the form of video presentations made by the school doctor, related to the preservation of health and the prevention of the consumption of substances, as well as the promotion of a healthy lifestyle.

The activity "A safe life for all the children" consisted of an exhibition with works of students related to the prevention of abuse and violence and the promotion of equal opportunities in education.

The activity "Let's do the Blue School" was carried out in the form of a flash mob, the pupils of the school wearing the color blue to promote respect for the rights of the child.

It was an important and necessary activity, as our school is an inclusive school. For the children it was a different play and a different kind of information, for the parents it was a challenge, and for the teachers it was a way to interact differently with the local community.

THEORETICAL HIGH SCHOOL “ANA IPATESCU”, Gherla

Summary of the activities:

- Students were presented with PPT material on children's rights.
- The students discussed with teachers about situations of respecting and not respecting the rights of the child, but also about the duties that the children have.
- Drawings and collages were made on the given theme.
- To show compassion for the children whose rights are violated, the students of the Theoretical High School “Ana Ipătescu”, Gherla, organized an artistic moment using red and white balloons.
- The students from Class I B and from Classes II, A, II, B, IV B and IV C participated in the activities.

Expected results:

Children should know what their rights are, but they should also learn how to appreciate them and how to use them both in schools and in everyday life. To this end, schools must allow a wide range of learning experiences related to child rights education.

To encourage them, the challenge for the teacher is to create an environment governed by the spirit of democracy and human rights.

CALL TO ACTION 2019: Commemorate the World Day – 19 November In synergy with the Universal Children's Day – 20 November 2019

Celebrating this year the 30th anniversary of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, we call on all our coalition members, partners and friends around the world to participate again with local and national activities in the realization of the UN Sustainable Development Goal Target #16.2 « End abuse, exploitation, trafficking, and all forms of violence against and torture of children » to speed up better prevention of violence against children and youth in the world.

We invite you to use the overleaf campaign poster, add your name, logo and program of action to increase participation in creating a world fit for children and youth. With every 5 minutes a child dying as a result of violence around the world, we need to mobilize not only governments, but also all citizens – adults and youth - to commit to the full implementation of children's right to dignity and non-violence.

For those of you who are new to the 19 November World Day for prevention of child abuse, please note that the Women's World Summit Foundation (WWSF) inaugurated this Day in the year 2000 with endorsements from many dignitaries, including from Kofi Annan, Paulo Sergio Pinheiro, Desmond Tutu, Her Majesty Queen Rania of Jordan, Jean Zermatten and Prof. Yang-hee Lee, both former chairs of the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child; Marta Santos Pais, Special Representative of the UN Secretary General on violence against children; Najat Maalla M'jid, former UN Special Rapporteur on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, to mention some of them.

We propose to use our annual campaign Kit "19 Days of activism for the elimination of violence against children and youth 1-19 November", with 19 themes and ideas for action, including faith-based leaders and youth and create circles of compassion described on our website. You can register your participation with WWSF via email wdpca@wssf.ch and send us a copy of your program and poster, which we will share on our website and on social media. Together we can be the change that is needed to turn this world around.

APPEL À L'ACTION 2019 : Commémorez la Journée Mondiale pour l'élimination de la violence envers les enfants et les jeunes 19 novembre, en synergie avec la Journée mondiale de l'enfance 20 novembre 2019

Célébrant cette année le 30e anniversaire de la Convention relative aux droits de l'enfant, nous appelons tous nos partenaires et amis de la coalition à travers le monde à participer à des activités locales et nationales pour la réalisation de l'objectif 16.2 des Objectifs de Développement Durable de l'ONU. « Mettre fin aux abus, à l'exploitation, au trafic et à toutes les formes de violence à l'égard des enfants et à la torture » pour accélérer la prévention de la violence à l'égard des enfants et des jeunes dans le monde.

Nous vous invitons à utiliser l'affiche de la campagne, à ajouter votre nom, votre logo et votre programme d'action pour accroître la participation mondiale à la création d'un monde digne des enfants et des jeunes. Toutes les 5 minutes, un enfant mourant des suites de la violence dans le monde entier, nous devons mobiliser non seulement les gouvernements, mais également tous les citoyens - adultes et jeunes - pour qu'ils s'engagent à appliquer pleinement le droit des enfants à la dignité et à la non-violence.

Pour celles qui ne sont pas nouvelles à la Journée mondiale de la prévention de la maltraitance d'enfants du 19 novembre, veuillez noter que la Fondation du Sommet mondial des femmes (WWSF) a inauguré cette journée en 2000 avec l'aval de nombreuses personnalités, parmi lesquelles Kofi Annan, Paulo Sergio Pinheiro, Desmond Tutu, Sa Majesté la reine Rania de Jordanie, Jean Zermatten et le professeur Yang-hee Lee, tous deux ex-présidents du Comité des droits de l'enfant des Nations Unies; Marta Santos Pais, Représentante spéciale du Secrétaire général des Nations Unies sur la violence à l'encontre des enfants; Najat Maalla M'jid, ancienne Rapporteuse spéciale des Nations Unies sur la vente d'enfants, la prostitution des enfants et la pornographie mettant en scène des enfants, pour ne citer que quelques-uns d'entre eux.

Nous proposons d'utiliser notre Kit « 19 jours d'activisme pour l'élimination de la violence à l'égard des enfants et des jeunes du 1 au 19 novembre », traitant 19 thèmes et idées d'action, y compris pour les leaders religieux et les jeunes et de créer des cercles de compassion. Vous pouvez enregistrer votre participation auprès de la WWSF par e-mail à l'adresse wdpca@wssf.ch et nous envoyer une copie de votre programme et affiche, que nous partagerons sur notre site Web et sur les médias sociaux.

Ensemble, nous sommes le changement nécessaire pour transformer ce monde.
