Serving humanity: Women and Children First!

WWSF Newsletter Edition January 2022

Monthly News and Updates

Dear Partners and Friends,

We start this New Year by expressing our very good wishes to all partners for a joy-filled 2022, with breakthroughs and successes in your work for Good, advancing women's and children's rights, and the sustainable development agenda 2030, "always looking forward, never looking back".

A Big Thank You to all active coalition members who sent us a brief report of their 2021 activities during the "19 Days of activism for prevention of violence & abuse against children and youth 1-19 November 2021"

As you know we highlight your program of actions in our annual reports, which are published online. Your creative activities on so many fronts are a hope for the future and they keep us and readers informed that humanity is committed to turning this broken world around 4 Good. We will select again one or two coalition member organizations for our annual WWSF Innovation Prize, to be announced in our next Newsletter. -----

For those among you who are new to WWSF, below is a brief introduction to our new campaign.

"75%: Actors 4 Good International, claiming a seat at the Table"

A new network gets born with 75%.

Women, children, and youth, representing 75% of the world population – 6 billion strong – have little, or no say in most decision-making processes that shape the economic, social, and political environment in which we live.

leadership by including the peacebuilders, the change-makers, all actors for Good, who work to correct a broken world with broken promises. We are expecting world leaders to change course so that our children and grandchildren will not inherit

Women, children, and youth need to be at the decision-making tables to prepare a paradigm shift in the unstable and fragile world we live in today. Women who give birth to all humanity deserve a seat at every decision-making table to defend their rights and those of their children.

Our mission is to break the notion of exclusion and finish with established discrimination and war plans, ignite a post-pandemic culture where 75% has a seat at the table. Our objectives are included in the Concept Note online and how we plan to move forward with all registered 75% Actors for Good International.
